THE FOURTEENTH EDITION
OF
FOWLER'S DIRECTORY
AND
GENERAL ADVERTISER,

IS MOST RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO

ROBERT WALLACE, Esq.,

LATE M.P. FOR GREENOCK,

For his valuable services to his Country in the cause of Civil and Religious Liberty; and for his zealous co-operation in obtaining for the Country that blessed boon, a Uniform Penny Postage.

AND THE

PROVOST, MAGISTRATES, AND TOWN COUNCIL OF PAISLEY,

BY THEIR MOST OBEDIENT SERVANT,

GEORGE FOWLER.

RENFREWSHIRE DIRECTORY OFFICE,

PAISLEY, July, 1853.

ADDRESS.

G. FOWLER, in ushering to the Public the Fourteenth Edition of the DIRECTORY and GENERAL ADVERTISER, begs to return his sincere thanks for the patronage he has hitherto enjoyed, and trusts that the present Work will be found equally deserving their countenance and support.

To the Magistrates, the Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Agents, and Office-bearers of Public Institutions, he offers his respectful thanks ; and to all those who have favoured him with their punctual attention to his notices.

Every person is aware that the chief value of a work of this kind consists in the accuracy of its details, and the distinct arrangement of its several parts. In securing these essential requisites, he has in this, as in all former editions of his DIRECTORY, spared neither labour nor expense ; and as this can only be compensated by an extensive sale of the Work, he trusts he will meet with his usual encouragement from a discerning Public.

* The Birth Place of Alexander Wilson, the American Ornithologist.—Born 6th July, 1766; died 23d August, 1813.

The Columbia Society of Fine Arts, of which he was a member, walked in procession before the hearse, and wore crape round their arms for thirty days. His remains were deposited in the cemetery of the Swedish Church, in the district of Southwark, Philadelphia. While in the enjoyment of health, he had, in a conversation with a friend on the subject of death, expressed a wish to be buried in some rural spot, sacred to peace and solitude; whither the charms of nature might invite the steps of the votary of the muses and the lover of science, and where the birds might sing over his grave. It has been matter of regret to those of his friends to whom was confided the mournful duty of ordering his funeral, that this desire had not been made known to them, otherwise it should have been piously observed. A plain marble tomb marks where his dust reposes, on which appears the following inscription:—

This Monument covers the remains of ALEXANDER WILSON, author of the American Ornithology. He was born in Paisley, Renfrewshire, Scotland, on the 6th July, 1766; emigrated to the United States in the year 1794; and died in Philadelphia, of the dysentery, on the 23d August, 1813, aged 47.

TO

FOWLER'S PAISLEY DIRECTORY.

1853 — 54.

Population of Paisley, within the bounds specified in the Reform Act, according to the Census in 1851, is 47,951.

The above is the amount of Population within the Parliamentary Boundary of the Town. This is the second Census that has been taken since the Boundary was fixed. But the amount of Population, as nearly as can be computed, within what is now the Parliamentary Boundary of the Town, was in 1831, 46,199, which makes an increase of Population since that period of 1,837 persons.

If, however, the number of persons absent at sea-bathing quarters and otherwise, and strangers present on the night of the 31st March, are taken into account, the Population would stand thus:—

Persons in Paisley on the night of the 31st March, 1851,	47,951
— absent, - - - - -	160
	48,111
Deduct Strangers, - - - - -	75

Postage Stamps.

Stamps may be procured at the Post office, or Stamp office, 2 County place; labels, 1d., 2d., and 1s. each, and covers at $1\frac{1}{4}$ d. and $2\frac{1}{4}$ d. each. When the value of stamps on the letter is less than the amount of the postage to which it is liable, the letter will be charged double the amount of such difference on delivery. Stamps may be used for printed votes and proceedings in Parliament, and on foreign, colonial, and ship letters, &c., outwards. If any letter, however, addressed to places beyond the sea, bear an insufficient number of stamps, it will be sent to the Dead Letter office, to be returned in all practicable cases to the writer. Stamps are not permitted to be used on Letters arriving in the United Kingdom, from the colonies or foreign countries.

These Regulations are applicable to newspapers, in cases where they are liable to postage. If the stamps affixed to letters have been mutilated or defaced, the letter will be liable to the unpaid rate.

The Post office do not convey packages exceeding 16 ounces in weight inland, except in the case of Parliamentary papers, and other privileged documents. The above are the charges on all letters posted and delivered in the United Kingdom, without regard to distance; and there is no difference in the case of letters posted and delivered within the boundaries of the old Penny Post Offices in towns. The rate of postage is affected by the weight entirely, and not by the number of sheets or enclosures.

and so on, half ounces not being counted when the letter exceeds 1 ounce. The postage is uniform, and applies, in whatever part of the United Kingdom the letter is posted, or to whatever colony it is directed to. In the case of East India letters, this rate applies only to those passing by the Falmouth packets, and thence overland, and not to those passing in the first place through France. There is no limitation to any particular weight.

Ship Letters.

These include letters passing by private ships, between any place in the United Kingdom, and a place beyond seas, foreign or colonial, including Ceylon, the Mauritius, the Cape, and the East Indies. Owners, Consignees, or Charterers, (resident in the United Kingdom) and the Owner, Consignees, and Shippers of goods on board vessels, inward bound, are entitled to receive their letters from sea postage, to the extent of six ounces. A penalty of ten pounds is incurred by parties falsely superscribing a letter as Owner, Shipper, Charter, or Consignee.

and so on progressively.

Money Orders.

The most secure mode of transmitting Bank Notes, Bank Post Bills or Drafts, is to divide each and send the halves by different posts, waiting the acknowledgment of the one half before forwarding the other.

Coin should not be sent by post, and persons having occasion to transmit small sums, will avoid all risk by sending the money through the medium of the Money Order Office, which is carried on by the Post Office on the public account. The charge for such orders will be threepence on sums of Two Pounds and under, and sixpence on sums between Two and Five Pounds. No order will be given for sums beyond this amount. To avoid trouble, it must be understood that the party in whose favour the order is drawn must attend personally to receive it.

By the bill to regulate the boundaries of Scotch towns, returning, or joining to return Members to Parliament, under the new regime, the following are the boundaries assigned to Paisley and Renfrew. They are certainly ample, and will not be complained of as cutting too closely on the outskirts.

PAISLEY.

From the summit of Byres Hill, on the north-east of the Town in a straight line to the point near Knockhill, at which the Renfrew road is joined by a road from Glasgow; thence in a straight line to the summit of Knockhill; thence in a straight line to the northern gable of the Moss-toll-house on the Greenock road; thence in a straight line in the direction of the chimney of Laidwood cotton mill, to the point at which such straight line cuts the Candren burn; thence up the Candren burn to the point at which the same is joined by the Braughtland burn at the bridge over the same on the Johnstone road; thence up the Braughtland burn to a point which is distant five hundred yards (measured along the Braughtland burn) above the said bridge; thence in a straight line to Merkelfridge bridge over the Candren burn; thence in a straight line to the point at which the old Neilston road leaves the new Neilston road; thence in a straight line to the summit of Dykebar hill; thence in a straight line to a point which is one hundred yards due north-east of the summit of Bathge hill; thence in a straight line to the first described.

RENFREW.

From the Millburn bridge over the Pudzeoch burn on the Glasgow road in a straight line to a point up the Pudzeoch burn, which is distant three hundred yards in a straight line from the said bridge; thence in a straight line to a point on the Greenock road, which is distant two hundred and fifty yards, (measured along the Greenock road) from the point at which the same leaves the Paisley road; thence in a straight line to a point in the river Clyde, which is distant three hundred yards (measured along the river Clyde) below the point at which the same is joined by the Canal; thence along the river Clyde to the point at which the same is joined by the Canal; thence along the Canal to the point at which the same is joined by the Pudzeoch burn; thence along the Pudzeoch burn to the bridge aforesaid.

J O H N S T O N E D I R E C T O R Y .

The names of the streets of Johnstone and the numbers of the houses in each, were formerly distinctly marked, but at present, these are in a great measure obliterated, which is not to be wondered at, the original markings having been made so long ago as the year 1828. This was done at the suggestion and under the superintendence of the present compiler, as were also those of Collockshaws, Part-Glasgow, Greenock, Gourock, and Largs; and even those of Paisley on its present improved plan. There can be little doubt that the spirited inhabitants of Johnstone will see the propriety, not to say the necessity, of having this defect speedily supplied—an arrangement so very useful, not only in guiding strangers to the different parts of the town, but also for enabling traders and correspondents to direct letters and parcels to their proper destinations. Indeed it would be well if every town and village in the kingdom had similar arrangements.

F A I R S .

Johnstone Cross, nearly opposite to the Black Bull Head Inn, is distant from the Cross of Paisley, 3 miles, 5 furlongs, 34 poles.

Fairs are held on the Thursday following the second Monday of July and the last Thursday of October, for cattle; also, for horses, on the Friday before the second Wednesday of January annually.

Although this market is not generally known, being but lately established, yet, from the excellent supply of cattle brought forward, it promises to be one of the most numerously attended Fairs in the West of Scotland. The market place is spacious and very extensive, affording accommodation rarely to be met with.

PETER F. SLATER,
 Shirt Maker, Hosiery, and General Outfitter,
 15 HIGH STREET, PAISLEY.

THE NEW SHIRT, HOSIERY, STAY, and GENERAL UNDERCLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT, was opened from a conviction that great necessity existed for this Branch receiving some more decided attention so as to prevent the necessity that many were under of going to Glasgow whenever they were in want of such Goods, it being notorious that no choice, not even an ordinary Stock could be had here.

The short trial I have already had, proves that I was not mistaken, the daily testimony of my numerous Visitors being "I'm sure there was great need for such a Shop in Paisley, I hope you'll be well supported."

I regret the delay and inconvenience which many of my Customers have experienced in their Shirt Orders, this has arisen solely from the difficulty I have had in getting good Sewers; this difficulty, however, I have now to a great extent overcome, and have the satisfaction of being able to execute all Orders, to whatever extent, on very short notice.

The Stock of Underclothing on hand is now very large; suitable for every class, and in all the different sizes, makes, and styles. Ladies will find this department worthy their inspection, being wholly Town-made; they are all as well sewed as bespoke Goods, and many new and beautiful shapes will be found among them. An experienced Female attends this department.

The Stock of Stays is also very large, including every make from the common Jean, 1s. 6d., to French Elastic Wove, 14s.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF CHILDREN'S STAYS.

The Children's Department, besides all the various necessities in Underclothing, contains a great variety of Sewed Robes and Frocks, Carrying Cloaks, Pelisses, Dresses, Polkas, Pinafores, Overalls, Sewed and Embroidered Hats and Bonnets, Caps, &c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN

are especially invited to the Shirt Department, which comprises all that the most fastidious can desire, in quality, styles, and make, from the Cotton Shirt with Linen Fittings, 2s., to the beautiful all Linen Shirts, 10s. 6d., and Rich Embroidered Fronts, 12s. Regattas from 1s. 11d. to 3s. 3d., all fast colours warranted. Heavy Stripes, from 1s. 9d. to 2s. 2d. Boys' Shirts, every size, in White, Regatta, and Common Stripes.

 Soly by me only in Town, and at the Maker's Prices.

"COLOURED PHOTOGRAPHIC PORTRAITS ON GLASS. — We have much pleasure in directing the attention of our readers to an advertisement inserted elsewhere by Mr. G. M'Kenzie of this town, on the subject of Coloured Photographic Portraits on Glass. After a lengthened series of experiments, Mr. M'K. has brought this art to great perfection, as testified by a case of Portraits displayed in the Johnstone exhibition. Considering the simplicity of the process, the short period of time required, and the moderate charges made, we have little doubt Mr. M'Kenzie will be highly successful. The specimens submitted to us, we have little hesitation in saying, are unsurpassed by anything we have ever seen of the kind."

THE utmost security is afforded to the Public by the very large amount of the subscribed Capital, by the highly responsible character of the Proprietary, and by the Income of the Society itself, which now, from Premiums alone, exceeds £25,000 per annum.

The Tariffs adopted by other Companies are in a great measure disregarded by this Office, the Directors preferring to act without combination, as they are thus left free to demand such Premiums only as they think reasonably sufficient to meet the risk incurred.

Farming Stock insured at 3s. per cent. without the average clause.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Where merchants live, and wholesale dealers,
And various kinds of small retailers ;
Surgeons, midwives, and innkeepers,
Blacksmiths, painters, and chimney-sweepers.
Who have to let well-furnished rooms,
Who curl hair and sell perfumes,
Who strive from drowning you to save,
Who make your coffins, dig your graves,
Who guard your merits when you're gone,
By gravng them on your tomb-stone,
Who for misdeeds bestow rebukes,
Who bind, buy, sell, or lends out books ;
Bellmen, door-keepers, and precentors,
Number who vote for parliamenters,
The members of incorporations,
And all who fill our public stations ;
Town-criers, agents, auctioneers,
And who at funerals furnish tears.
Ministers, teachers, police rules,
Sabbath and week-day evening schools,
Those men who vigorous efforts join,
To circulate the word divine,
When banks are open, and when shut,
And where all carriers put up ;
The places whence all our coaches start.
When they arrive, and when depart,
The time of starting of the post,
Where stamps are sold, and what they cost,
The savings bank, fire engines' stations,
The newest tables of taxation,
About the boats which will convey
Yourself or goods the cheapest way ;
Tables by which you'll quickly see
How days of weeks and months agree,
Letters writers, money lenders,
Fish, bacon, egg, and other venders.
Cattle shows, and ploughing matches,
The regattas, and steam coaches,
Porters, barrowmen, and their fares
For to convey your goods or wares,
Sailing vessels, large and small,
Agents, masters, trade and all,
Where you may have the cheapest reading,
Also steam vessels and cowfeeding ;
I these and other things will show,
Which 'tis desirable to know,
Knowledge like this there's little doubt,
Few prudent men will go without.
You'll have it all, you soon will see,
If you become possess'd of me.
